BLOODY DUEL FOUGHT NEAR CRAB ORCHARD
Melvin Kidd Dead and John Dishon
Seriously Wounded in Saturday Night Fight.

One of the bloodiest duels ever fought in Lincoln county took place two miles south of Crab Orchard, near the county poor house, Saturday night about 7 o'clock.

The principals in the fight were Melvin Kidd, aged 23, and his brother-in-law, John Dishon, aged about 45. From the best information obtainable, it seems that Dishon had secured a quantity of liquor and going to his home in the afternoon was, with Kidd and others preparing to go possum hunting that night.

Kidd was standing in Dishon's yard firing a pistol which he had partially closed a trade with a neighbor for, and which he was trying. Dishon stepped to his front door and told Kidd to stop shooting as he was tired of the noise. Kidd is said to have replied that he would do so when he "d—d pleased." This brought an angry retort from Dishon and the two quarreled for a moment and Kidd, is alleged started toward Dishon with his pistol in his hand. Dishon stepped back into the room and came out with a shot gun and both began firing. Kidd received the full charge in his left breast and staggering back a few feet fell into a ditch, shot in the breast also, the ball ranging upward (the result of his standing in the doorway above his assailant) and toward his right shoulder.

Coroner Geo. P. Bright was immediately notified and went to the scene of the killing, where he impaneled a jury and they rendered a verdict to the effect that Kidd came to his death at the hands of Dishon, who acted in the necessary defense of his life.

Dishon married Kidd's sister and has a large family, while Kidd had but recently married a niece of Dishon and they lived in the same house. It is said that bad feeling existed between the two men for some time. While Dishon's wound is serious, it is not regarded as necessarily fatal owing to the fact that the ball from Kidd's pistol ranged upward. He is under guard and will be arrested if his condition will warrant his removal. The charge from Dishon's gun tore a ghastly wound in Kidd's left breast and death must have been instantaneous.

This is the second tragedy in the First End of the county within the past year both of which were or less brought about by whisky.

Enslin Planning Improvements
Charles Enslin, the popular and progressive Orliehull miller, is planning the construction of a windmill at his place, southwest of Stanford, and the installation of a storage battery and electric dynamo to be used as operative power for his flour mill. Mr. Enslin has been investigating the cost of maintenance and operation of such power as compared with his present system, and old fashioned steam mill, and believes that a wind driven dynamo will prove a big saving for him.

Thieves After Corn

Considerable complaint is being heard of the theft of corn in the field out in the Turnersville section. Several well known farmers have found evidence that leads them to believe some negroes in that neighborhood are doing the thieving and they are getting ready to go after them with shotguns if they can be caught with the goods on.

Building Bungalow
John G. Lynn, of this place, has begun erection of a neat bungalow on the farm he recently purchased of J. Frank Smith. The property lies on the cut-off pike between Stanford and Shelby City and is known as the Engleman farm. The house on it, a handsome two-story frame, burned about three years ago and was owned at the time by Robert F. Seudder, now of Arizona.

FARM AND STOCK NEWS

W. O. Walker delivered to T. W. Jones a bunch of good hogs weighing 200 pounds, for which he received 6 1-2 cents.

W. R. Finnes, of the Walnut Flat section, sold to H. D. Holtzelaw for shipment to the Cincinnati market, a bunch of 100 pound hogs at 6 1-2 cents and fat heifer at 4 1-4 cents.

John L. Smith, on the Rural Route No. 2, Crab Orchard, delivered John Cross, the Preachersville stock buyer, three sucking ewes, for which Mr. Cross paid him $11 a head.

George Carpenter lost a handsome Jersey heifer last week by a heavy limb falling from a tree under which she was standing at his farm on the Crab Orchard and Stanford turnpike.

She was heavy with a calf, was registered and her owner valued her at $80.

E. T. Pence, Jr., of this city, is feeding at his farm on the Lancaster and Stanford pike, a handsome bunch of a dozen mules which were bought at $50. He will have them on the market at the right time and believes they will make him a net profit.

J. W. Brown, who has been living on the Frank Lawrence place on the Preachersville pike about two years, bought the George Maxey house and lot on the Huston and Danville pike, half a mile from Shelby City, and has taken possession. He gave $650 for the place.

R. C. Arnold, the local stock trader, has bought during the past few days the following live stock, of Henry Walters, 16 hogs averaging 200 pounds, at 6 1-2 cents; of L. S. Slone, seven averaging 6 1-2 cents, of W. L. Long a bunch weighing 125 pounds that cost him 6 1-2 cents; of H. Walters, 3 calves for $30 and a cow weighing 800 pounds, of G. W. Carter at 8 cents.

S. G. Brown, the Embank stock trader, brought to town and sold to Richard Hester, out on the Lancaster pike, a drove of 30 steer calves. He got $150 for the bunch. Mr. Brown sold to Hiram Bros., of Jessamine county, who came to Lincoln considerably after stock, a bunch of 10 steers that he had bought in the south end of the county. They went to the Jessamine buyer at an average of 4 3-4 cents a pound.

Mitchell Taylor, of Danville, bought of Mr. Brown 10 feeding ewes for $11. Mr. Brown shipped in a car load of hogs to the Cincinnati market last week.

The County Sheriff

The theatergoers will have a treat in store when "The County Sheriff" comes to Stanford Opera House on Wednesday, Nov. 20. This is one of those quiet melodramas that burns little powder. Still abounding in heart interest and thrilling climaxes it tells a beautiful love story of the plums, with just enough comedy to relieve the intensity of the dramatic situation. The story is told in four acts, and special scenic and stage equipments are carried for the entire production. Mr. Len R. Parker, the author, has added very little fictitious embellishment to the already interesting story. The costumes, which are historically correct, is a feature of the performance. "All the world loves a lover" is an old adage and a true one, and one of the most fascinating stories of the love of two men for one woman that was ever told, is the basis of the play.

Constipation and Catarrh

Have me? Well, whether you would be here or not it is the truth.

For many years I have been writing with the problem of relieving the public of intestinal catarrh remedy.
Peruna has been the remedy that I have devised and it has certainly relieved many thousand people, you know hundreds of thousands of people of intestinal catarrh.

Constipation was my chief difficulty in treating these cases. I often felt that it would be better if a laxative element were added to Peruna. I feared to do so, however, first because of the number of catarrhal patients who needed no laxative, and second I was afraid of making such a radical change in a remedy that was already doing so well. Thus it was that I continued to prescribe with the Peruna a bottle of Mannalin to those who needed a laxative.
At last, under circumstances explained in my booklet, I was constrained to add the laxative element to Peruna.
This constitutes what is now known as the revised Peruna.

Now those who take Peruna will,
first, find themselves promptly relieved of their constipation. Second, the catarrh will gradually disappear. And one day the catarrh is cured the constipation leaves permanently. Then if you follow the advice given in my book, you will never have to take pills any more. Cathartics and laxatives you can ignore. You will be permanently relieved of both your catarrh and the constipation. PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons are misinformed in regard to the name Peruna. To such would say,

Old in Age But Modern in Ways

The FIRST NATIONAL BANK, of Stanford is the oldest institution in this section of the state, having been organized March 9, better than it ever was.

While old in age it is modern in methods. Our patrons, and they are many, will testify to the fact that we take care of them in a manner both pleasing and satisfactory.

Your patronage is respectfully asked. Remember our pledge of courteous treatment and honorable dealings.

FROL, SICKLY CHILD

Recovered to Health by Vinol
Letter to Mothers.

Anxious mothers often wonder why their children are so pale, thin and nervous and have so little appetite. For the benefit of such mothers in this vicinity we publish the following letter.

J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn., says: "My little daughter, ever since her birth, had been frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worry. Several months ago we commenced to give her Vinol. I immediately noted an improvement in her health and appearance. I gave her three bottles of Vinol, and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim."

This child's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements extracted from cods' livers, combined with the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol.

Vinol will build up and strengthen delicate children, old people and the weak, run-down and debilitated. We return the money in every case where it fails.

FELT BAD
ALL THE TIME
Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die.

At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardul, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well. I wish every lady, suffering from womenly trouble, would try Cardul. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardul is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health. As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 50 years. Your druggist sells it. Please try it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for "Cardul—A Remedy for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

Little Stories for Women About Clothes—No. 5

What Does It Mean?

WOLTEX on a tailored garment means what "sterling" means on silver. It means what "Tiffany" means on a piece of jewelry. It means what an honest man's signature means on a check.

It means safety. It means character, backed by reputation. It means a guarantee of satisfaction.

It means that the style is authentic and exclusive.

It means that the cloth used is all pure wool.

It means that the tailoring is conscientious, skillful and thorough.

It means that the garment will "stay new"; will keep its shape; will look fresh, natty and trim despite wear and wet.

It means assured value at a moderate price.

It means a GUARANTEE THAT YOU WILL GET AT LEAST TWO FULL SEASONS' SATISFACTORY SERVICE FROM THE GARMENT THAT CARRIES IT.

Isn't that a label worth looking for?

Come in here and ask to see the suits, coats and skirts that bear this Wooltex label. We alone, in this city, sell them.

We are now receiving our second stock of Wooltex Suits and Cloaks. New models. New Fabrics. Every one absolutely the latest models and Pure Wool.

A Trial Gave Instant Relief—The Great Kidney Remedy Never Disappoints

Being broken down in health, suffering from Kidney Trouble, despairing of ever being well again, I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, which gave me instant relief, and after using several bottles, I am now sound and well, and can safely recommend Swamp-Root to anyone suffering with back or kidney troubles.

I also had rheumatism, and I have had more relief from Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root than any other remedy. A sufficient trial will convince anybody of the merits of Swamp-Root.

Yours very truly,
